

FLY SOUTH FOR SUMMER Anyone who's seen December Boys at the cinema will be itching to visit stunning Kangaroo Island, where much of the film was shot. An even better reason to visit is to check out the new luxurious accommodation at Southern Ocean Lodge, perched above Hanson Bay on the island's isolated south coast. Opening at the beginning of 2008, it offers suites, including some with private plunge spas, that have a level of style previously unseen on the island. All of it within short distances of KI's biggest natural attractions, including the inhabitants of Seal Bay. Bookings and enquiries, (02) 9918 4355, southernoceanlodge.com.au.
